An applicant organization having 50 or more employees and receiving amounts of $500,000 or more, or grants which in the aggregate exceed $500,000 or more, in any fiscal year must submit a copy of its Equal Employment Opportunity Plan (EEO Plan) to the DCJS for review. For continuation grant funding that exceeds this amount in any fiscal year, the applicant must submit a statistical update from the previous years plan.

9. The applicant assures that in the event a federal or state court or federal or state administrative agency makes a finding of discrimination after a due process hearing on the grounds of race, color, religion, national origin or sex against a recipient of funds, the recipient will forward a copy of the finding to the DCJS.
10. RELEASE OF INFORMATION: All records, papers and other documents kept by recipients of DCJS funds, and their contractors, relating to the receipt and disposition of such funds, are required to be made available to the DCJS. These records and other documents submitted to DCJS and its applicants pursuant to other provisions of the Act, including plans and application for funds, are required to be made available to DCJS under the terms and conditions of the Federal Freedom of Information Act, 5 USC 552.
11. INFORMATION SYSTEMS. With respect to programs related to criminal justice information systems, the applicant agrees to comply with the provisions of 28 CFR, Part 20 governing the protection of the individual privacy and the insurance of the integrity and accuracy of data collection. The applicant further agrees:
 - a. That all computer programs (software) developed with funds provided by this grant will be made available to the DCJS for transfer to authorized users in the criminal justice community without cost other than that directly associated with the transfer. The software will be documented in sufficient detail to enable potential users to adapt the system, or portions thereof, to usage on a computer of similar size and configuration.
 - b. To provide a complete copy of the computer programs and documentation, upon request, to the DCJS. The documentation will include but not be limited to system description, operating instruction, program maintenance instructions, input forms, file descriptions, report formats, program listings, and flow charts for the system and programs.
 - c. That whenever possible all application programs will be written in standardized programming languages (i.e., ANSI, COBOL, FORTRAN, BASIC, etc.) for use on general operating systems (e.g., DOS, CP/M, UNIX, etc.) that can be utilized on at least three different manufacturer's computers of similar size and configuration.
 - d. To avail itself, to the maximum extent possible, of computer software already produced and available without charge. The Department of Criminal Justice Services should be contacted to determine availability of software prior to any development effort.
12. CONFIDENTIALITY OF RESEARCH INFORMATION: Research information identifiable to an individual, which was obtained through a project funded wholly or in part with DCJS and/or VAWA grant funds, shall remain confidential and copies of such information shall be immune from legal process, and shall not, without the consent of the person furnishing such information, be admitted as evidence or used for any purpose in any action, suit, or other judicial or administrative proceeding (28 CFR Part 22).

13. CRIMINAL INTELLIGENCE SYSTEMS OPERATING POLICIES: The applicant agrees to be in compliance with all policies as expressed under the Code of Federal Regulations, 28 CFR 23, concerning the operation of criminal intelligence systems supported with grant funds.
14. COPYRIGHT: Except as otherwise provided in the conditions of the award, the author is free to arrange for copyright without approval when publication or similar materials are developed from work under a DCJS supported project. Any such copyright materials shall be subject to the DCJS's right to reproduce them, translate them, publish them, use and dispose of them, and to authorize others to do so for government purposes. In addition, communications in primary scientific or professional journals publishing initial reports or research or other activities and supported in whole or in part by the DCJS project funds may be copyrighted by the journal with the understanding that individuals are authorized to make or have made by any means available to them, without regard to the copyright of the journal, and without royalty, a single copy of any such article for their own use. State employees who develop copyrights during work hours, or within the scope of their employment, or when using state-owned or state-controlled facilities, the copyrights vest in the Commonwealth.
15. PATENTS: If any discovery or invention arises or is developed in course of or as a result of work performed under this grant, the applicant shall refer the discovery or invention to DCJS. The applicant hereby agrees that determination of rights to inventions made under this grant shall be made by the DCJS or its duly authorized official representative, who shall have the sole and exclusive powers to determine whether or not and where patent application should be filed and to determine the disposition of all rights in such inventions, including title which may issue thereon. The determination of the DCJS, or its duly authorized representative shall be accepted as final. In addition, the applicant hereby agrees and otherwise recognizes that the DCJS shall acquire at least an irrevocable non-exclusive royalty-free license to practice and have practiced throughout the world for governmental purposes any invention made in the course of or under this grant. The grant shall include provisions appropriate of effectuating the purpose of this condition in all contract of employment, consultant's agreements, or contracts.
16. The applicant assures that funds made available under this grant will not be used to supplant state or local funds, but will be used to increase the amounts of such funds that would be, in the absence of these funds, made available for drug law enforcement activities.

17. Confidential expenditures for services, evidence and/or information must comply with the requirements stated in the Administrative Guide and Application Procedures Manual, Chapter 5, entitled Confidential Funds.
18. BIO MEDICAL EXPERIMENTATION: The applicant assures that no grant funds will be used for any bio-medical or behavior control experimentation on individuals or any research involving such experimentation.
19. Any publications (written, visual or sound) whether published at the recipients or the governments expense shall contain the following statements:

This project was supported in whole or part by V-STOP grant no. _____ awarded by the Virginia Department of Criminal Justices Services (DCJS) from funds authorized by the federal Violence Against Women Act and awarded to Virginia by the U.S. Department of Justice. Opinions or points of view expressed do not necessarily represent those of DCJS or the Justice Department.

The opinions, findings, conclusions or recommendations expressed are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the views of DCJS or the U.S. Department of Justice.

CERTIFICATION

I certify that all the information presented is correct, that there has been appropriate coordination with affected agencies, and that the applicant will comply with the provisions of the Violence Against Women Act of 2000, and all other federal and state laws and guidelines that apply to this award.
